

Change Company Name/Contact Details

Last Modified on 08/05/2024 9:39 am BST

The details here are attached to any application that is downloaded from your consumer-facing website so it is important that these are correct. Note, that you may include a company trading name (useful if you have a website which you operate under a separate name). The trading name will appear on the Weblines quote pages, if you elect to use Weblines on your website.
